GRAND MILITARY SPECTACLE

Sixty-five thousand people stood over shee-top in mud, with rain coming down in torrents, on Cleveland's day, to witness the sham battle and see the first democratic president in twenty-five years pass in re-

Seventy-five thousand people will probably witness a repetition of this scene in the bright autumnal atmosphere of next Thursday's programme. Let the people come by hundreds, or by thousands, or by tens of thousands, there will be room and to spare for all.

Hundreds of prominent military men from all parts of the country will participate and lend their presence and renown to this grand military pageant. The railroads have given a low rate, thousands of tickets have been sold, and Atlanta will be filled to her borders. The old timehonored hospitality awaits every visitor. Hundreds of houses have been thrown open-to say nothing of the large numof boarding houses and hotelsto meet this demand. The steam cars, the electric cars and the horse cars will whirl you into the grounds in fifteen minutes. No delays, no dangers,

A week of unalloyed pleasure and enfoyment, brimful of useful lessons.

Every day during the week a brilliant programme of entertainment will greet the visitors. Fine racing, an incomparable Wild West show, equal to Cody's or Carver's, new in Europe; balloon ascensions and parachute descent every night. Brilliant illumination of grounds and fire works, fairy scenes and thousands of variegated electric lights, shedding their brilliant tints on flower and shrub, presenting an enchanting scene beyond the power of pen

Every day, from this morning to Esturday night, the grounds will be filled with hundreds of handsomely dressed military men - with their bright accouterments-practicing the graceful field movement, or the more difficult manual of arms.

Let every man, woman and child in Atlanta lend their presence to swell this crowd. Welcome the visitors and encourage the directors who have worked day and night for six months to make the exposition a Yesterday at the Grounds.

The programme of the day opened with the Wild West show at 1 o'clock.

This feature of the day's amusement was better, if possible, than it has ever been yet, and to judge from the loud applause that followed its different scenes, it was more appreciated by the audience than ever before.

There was an interest in the war-dance of the Indian warriors that captured the grandstand, and the robbing of the stagecoach was a thrilling scene of frontier life which never loses its excitement, however often it may be repeated.

The capture of Trapper Tom's cabin and the abduction of his daughter by the Indians was another interesting feature of the Wild West performance which brought shout after shout from the multiples on the grandstand.

A round of applause followed the performance.

The cattle show opened yesterday.

Some splendid animals are in the stalls, and this part of the exposition promises to be fully in keeping with its general excellence.

It is no exaggeration to say that it was, all round, the best day of racing Atlanta has ever had. Three races were run, these furnishing a full afternoon of rare sport. In two of the three races the furnishing a full afternoon of rare sport. favorites won, but that did not lessen the excitement, for even these were hard fought contests. The racing is giving great satisfaction. The ex-ellent programme has undoubtedly had the effect ving the race spirit in Atlanta and Georgia and to the lovers of this most delightful sport,

THE FIRST. The first yesterday was half-mile heats, and brought out five starters—Colonel Cox, Espanola, Shoemaker, Ada Gray and Billy Bush.

The patrons of the pool boxes picked Colonel Cox for sure winner, and that's what he proved to be. In the pools he brought even money against the field, and even before the first heat the field dropped to $6 in a

The first heat was a pretty race between Billy Bush and the favorite. Bush took the lead and held it to the quarter-pole, when Cox, who was right behind him, pulled up, and to the strotch it was as pretty a race as a man wants to see. Then Wiggins touched Cox's side with his whip and the Colonel showed his superiority by going and the Colonel showed his superiority by going under the wire two lengths ahead of Bush. The flag fell in the faces of the others.

In the second heat, Cox shut out his only oppoment. Both heats were run in 0:52.

from which nobody could pick a winner.

The friends of Crown Prince tried it and gave him the call, but in all such bets the field sold at good prices as fast as it could be cried. School Girl was picked as a dangerous competitor, and she was; but the knowing ones paid no attention to any of the others. Besides the two mentioned, Hiram Wood, Maud, May Mallory and Dahlia were starters.

The first heat was a big surprise. The horses, after many attempts, got away together. Around the turn and into the back stretch they went, practically bunched. Maud had pushed to the front, but Schoolgirl was right with her, and so was Dahlia. On the back stretch Prince's rider used his whip quite freely, but the favorite failed to respond to any extent. He couldn't get closer than third place, both Maud and Schoolgirl leading him. In that order they came home with a rush, the others right at their heels.

Schoolgirl and Maud were made favorites in the mutuals, but everybody wanted the field. The the mutuals, but everybody wanted the field. The six got a beautiful start. Malloy got to the front and rounded into the back stretch in the lead with Crown Prince and Schoolgirl right at her heels. At the quarter Malloy and Crown Prince were nose and nose and everybody expected to see the Prince win; but at the turn into the stretch Schoolgiri moved up. Down toward the wire they came, all under whip and spurs, every horse with another at his throat. A race, that! Schoolgiri proved fleetest and her black nose was several inches in front when the watches were stopped.

watches were stopped.

This sent all but Maud and Schoolgirl to the This sent all but Maud and Schoolgirl to the stables. Schoolgirl was favorite at $10 to $6. As they went under the wire at the start, an instantaneous photograph would have shown their noses right on a line. The horses were crowding each other and twenty yards from the stand a jockey was seen to make a desperate attempt to strike his opponent. The little fellow on Maud wasn't pleased, however, but pushed his mare to the front. They were not half a length apart for the entire distance; but the bay mare had the best of it all the way and beat Schoolgirl at a good length.

THE THIRD.

Seven starters, all splendid horses, came out when the bell rang for the mile and one-eighth dash. They were Eatonton, Metal, Lear's Martin, Panama, May Lillie, Elfreits and Ban Adonia. In the pools Eatonton sold even against the field, but Metal, Panama and Ban Adonia were looked upon as probabilities.

The start was at the furlong post at the head of the stretch. They got away in a bunch and came down the stretch right together. Elfretis Ban Adonia and Martin were the first ones under, but the others were so close that it was next to imthe others were so close that it was next to impossible to distinguish them. The pace soon grew to fast for Elfretis and he fell back into the crowd, the Daughter of King BBan taking his place. Martin hung close to her heels, and then, as they settled down to it, Eatonton galloped easily into third place. This was their position as they passed the stand the second time. The crowd began to call Ban Adonia as winner, but at the seven furlong past Fatenton waved in but at the seven-furlong post Eatonton moved up. Then began the real race of the day. Every inch of ground was fought for, and it was a hard fight. Panama joined the leaders, and his mighty strides began to tell, but 'twas too late. Eatonton led at

At 12:30 o'clock all Scottish Rite Masons as high as the fourteenth degree, were admitted into the supreme room to hear the grand master's allocution, which was read by Mr. O'Dell Squierlong. It was pronounced a scholarly and important paper. It was pronounced a scholarly and important paper.

The reading of allocution consumed about an hour and a half.

At 2 o'clock the supreme council and prominent visiting Masons were entertained by the grand commander at a luncheon. Among those present were: Senator Dolph, John Mills Brown, surgeon general of the United States navy; Abraham Ephraim Franckland, Chicago; Robert McCoskry Graham, New York; William IRyan, Richmond; James Cunningham Batchelor, New Orleans; Philip Crosby Tucker, Galveston; Thomas Hubbard Caswell, San Francisco.

The grand sword-bearer of the supreme council, Senator Teller, was absent on account of illness. Bishop Dudley, of Kentucky, is expected later in the week. Tonight the Royal Order of Scotland was conferred on Rev. Canon Carmichael and a number of other prominent Masons.

MULLETT SHOOTS HIMSELF.

The Ex-Supervising Architect of the Treas ury Commits Suicide. WASHINGTON, October 20.—A. B. Mullett, formerly supervising architect of the treasury, and for soveral years past a successful architect in private practice, shot and killed himself tonight, at his home in this city. He designed the New York postoffice building and the building in Washington used jointly by the state, war and navy departments.

ton used jointly by the state, war and navy departments.

He had been in poor health for a long time, suffering from rheumatism and other complaints, but it is thought that financial trouble was the chief cause of Mullett's act. This evening he was feeling poorly and his wife went down stairs to get him some beef tea. She had hardly reached the foot of the stairs when she heard a pistol shot, and rushing back, found her husband gasping for breath, with blood oozing from a wound in his head. A doctor was immediately summoned, but Mullett died in a few minutes.

By Refusing to Receive a Message Through His Private Secretary.

Columbus, O., October 20.—The lower branch of the legislature reconvened at 4 o'clock, p. m.
the senate having adjourned until tomorrow
Governor Campbell sent a message to the house, but the speaker refused to recognize his private secretary, and an adjournment motion was rushed through. Governor Campbell looks upon the action of the speaker as a personal insult. The message suggested that a non-partsan board of improvement for Cincinnati be appointed by the mayor of that city, and an election be held in April. The message will go to the senate tomerrow.

FOR THE MILITARY

AND FOR EVERYBODY ELSE, TOO.

That Is What This Week at the Exposition Will Be.

OVER ONE HUNDRED THOUSAND

Visitors Will Doubtless Gather to Witness the Beautiful Drills.

THE GOOD RACING YESTERDAY

The state drill today!

The companies are all here.

And they are in excellent trim for the drill. It will be the greatest contest ever known to the volunteer companies of Georgia. The grand stand will not at all be able to hold the great crowds of people who have come to wit-ness the memorable event.

The state drill will be entered by three companies, which are three of the best companies in the whole south.

Their drill will be excellent, and so equally matched are the boys that there is absolutely no telling who the winners may be.

All the companies were represented last night at the drawing for places in today's drill. The drawing took place at the Markham house, at 6 o'clock, and resulted as follows:

Floyd Rifles first place, to drill at 12 o'clock.

Brunswick Riflemen second place, to drill at 2 o'clock.

The Perry Rifles, third place to drill at 2:45 o'clock.
Each company will be allowed forty-five minutes to drill, and the drills will begin promptly at 12 to drill, and the drills will begin promptly at 12 o'clock.

The judges are: Lieutenant McDonald, of the Tenth United States cavalry; Lieutenant Lawton, of the United States Thirteenth Infantry, and Lieutenant Winston, of the Fourth United States Artillery.

They are all United States army officers, and have not been long from the rigid every-day exercise at West Point. The judges will take the grounds at 12 o'clock promptly today, and each company entering is required to report to them ten minutes before the drill.

THE BRUNSWICK RIFLEMEN.

THE BRUNSWICK RIFLEMEN.

The following men compose the drill team of the Brunswick Riflemen:
Captain, P. S. Morris; first lieutenant, H. S. Barkuloo; second lieutenant, S. C. Littlefield, Jr.; second lieutenant junior, B. A. White; first sergeant, J. Mitt Wells; E. L. Greer, Leroy Dart, Claude Dart, Lee Robinson, L. A. Jones, Clarence Levy, Charles Marshall, G. C. Hart, E. O. Gillican, Ed McGaugan, H. J. Simmons, H. O. Berrie, M. T. Scarlett, R. P. Bacon, John Harris and W. A. Florrid.

The men are in excellent condition for the drill today, and they are going to do some clever work on the field.

THE PERRY RIFLES. THE BRUNSWICK RIFLEMEN.

THE PERRY RIFLES. THE PERRY RIPLES.

This company, so well known in Atlanta as the men who carried the first prize away from the last exposition state drill, came to Atlanta last night on the Central railroad, reaching the city at 10:15 o'clock.

on the Central railroad, reaching the city at 10:15 o'clock.

They were met by the Atlanta Zouaves and escorted to the Markham house, where they will be quartered for the week. The drill team is made up of the following men: Captain, W. C. Davis; first lieutenant, C. E. Gilbert; second lieutenant, J. G. Haltzelaw; first sergeant, L. F. Cater; second sergeant, W. E. Fuller; first corporal, E. Ragin; second corporal, L. A. Felder; third corporal, H. W. Fuller; fourth corporal, J. S. Brunsen; Paul, Brunsen, Clark, Sims, Hauser, S. P., Dew, Townsly, Lawson, Gilbert, Bunn, Wellous, Hauser, F. The Perry Rifles are splendidly trained for the drill. They took the first prize in the state drill in Atlanta last October, and also at Macon in May. Many bets have been staked on the Perry boys as favorites.

This morning's early train from Macon will bring the Floyd Rifles. They will arrive in Atlanta at 6 o'clock, and will take up quarters in the Markham house. They will be on the grounds at 12 o'clock, and will be ready to take their place as the first company to drill. They are satisfied that they will win the first prize, and those who have seen them drill lately are liberally putting up their money on them.

Let everybody be on the grounds promptly at 12 o'clock today to see the drill.

It will be a brilliant one.

Today's Programme

Today's Programme.

It is a full programme today, and a great one.

Horses and cattle will be paraded on the track with halters at 10 o'clock. Group 55, show of phaeton ponies and draft horses at 11 o'clock.

Prize drill of the state troops from 12 m., to 1:45 p. m., and from 2 to 2:30 p. m.

The great Wild West show will take place between 1:45 p. m., and 3 p. m.

Trotting races at 3:30 p. m.

There will be a grand fireworks' display at 8 o'clock tonight on the grounds, and no one should miss seeing it. Nothing so grand has ever yet been seen in the south.

The Great Interstate Drill.

e country before. whole country before.

Every company that has come to enter is a crack one, famous for its record.

The same judges that preside over the state drills will have charge of the interstate drills.

The companies to enter will be the Atlanta Rifles, the Gate City Guard, the Fort Worth Fencibles, the McCarthy Light Guards, of Little Rock, Ark., and the Sewanee Cadets.

In the Camps. Yesterday was a busy time for the soldiers in the camps.

They were drilling on the track in the morning and afternoon, and spent the remaining part of the day arranging little details about the camps.

Captain Mynatt, with his adjutant, was busy all day assisting the boys to settle down comfortably in the encampment. THE FORT WORTH BOYS.

They are a clever set— The Fort Worth Fencibl

The Fort Worth Fencibles.

A good company it is, and to judge from their practice drills, they are going to make things lively for the first prize.

Their team is made up of the following:
Captain, W. B. Ford; lieutenants—first, B. H. Dunn; second, W. H. Mobley; sergeants—first, J. M. Wyatt; second, J. A. Flaherty; Abercombie, Askew, Austin, Brogassa, Boyd, Eagan, Egleston, Elliott, Ellis, Ferguson, Greene, Hull, Maloney, McCart, McGaughey, Melton, Pollard, Randall, Rosenfield, Schoeber, Tevis, Walker, Want, Whitaker, Williams; surgeon, W. THE SEWANEE CADETS.

Here's a crack company.
Fresh from the daily routine of college drills, these young soldiers are in great shape for the championship drill tomorrow.
They arrived yesterday, and have been anugly quartered in the encampment. Their drill team consists of Captain Frank Coyle, First Lleutenant A. S. Cleveland, Second Lieutenant F. E. Shoup, First Sergeant W. D. Cleveland, Second Sergeant C. L. Gless, and Privates Ford, Alken, Nichol, Hamilton, Howard, Hall, Lincoln, Wilde, Heywood, Fishburn, Adams, Brown, Lowe, Egleston, Miller, Glass, Ball, Thomas, Berry, Kirk, Lewis, Hodgson, Wrenn, Blacklock, Elliott, Sinclair, Watson and Jones.

Captain Coyle says if the judges require rigid and strict drilling, he is satisfied that the Cadets are solid for the first prize.

And the chances are that they will make things hot for the others contesting for the prizes.

This company is one of the most prominent of the western companies. It was organized three years ago in Little Rock, Ark., and was named for Colonel J. H. McCarthy, the patron of the company. Colonel McCarthy is one of the most prominent capitalists and business men in Arkansas.

All of the boys are in excellent spirits, and all are confident of winning the first prize. The following party of ladies and gentlemen came with the McCarthy Light Guards: Mr. and Mrs. D. G. Jones, Mrs. D. R. Wing, Miss Wing, Mr. F. M. Fletcher, and Mr. Benjamin.

The sponsor for the company will be Miss Sarah Frances Grant, of Atlanta.

Veterans' Day.

Frances Grant, of Atlanta.

Veterans' Day.

Thursday is Veterans' Day on the grounds.
Captain Wylie thinks there will be more than 40,000 people here that day.
It is the day of the great sham battle, in which 3,000 solders will enter.

It is also the day for Senator Daniels to speak. Senator Daniels will make one of the greatest speeches ever heard in the south. The veterans will revel in the greatest day ever yet held at Piedunont exposition.

Notes on the Grounds. The drawing for places in the interstate drill will take place at the Kimball this afternoon at 6 o'clock. The captains of the companies are requested to be present.

There will be a grand dress parade of all companies entered, Wednesday afternoon, after the interstate drill.

Already the city is filled with thousands of visitors, who come to witness the drills.

Notice to Exhibitors.

THE FRENCH TARIFF. ▲ Bill Introduced in the Chamber-Cotto

A Bill Introduced in the Chamber-Cotton on the Free List.

PARIS, October 20.—M. Roche, minister of commerce, introduced in the chamber of deputies today a general customs tariff bill. It provides a maximum tariff applicable to products imported from countries not conceding commercial advantages to France, and a minimum tariff reserved for countries consenting to customs regulations. It is calculated to benefit French trade. Agricultural products figuring exclusively in the maximum class will not be considered in any arrangements with the powers. Among the raw materials those will be exempt from duty which are indispensable to the great manufacturers. The products thus admitted free include raw silks and swools, raw hides and raw cotton.

The Sun's Cotton Review.

The Sun's Cotton Review. NEW YORK, October 20.—Futures opened at four to five points decline, closing at seven to eleven points decline from Saturday's closing eleven points decline from Saturday's closing prices and steady. The market quite broke down today. Liverpool showed depression, receipts at the ports were very large and at interior towns showed a healthy increase, Memphis, which has been backward, now coming forward with very full figures. There were reports of light frosts at one or two points, but these at this stage of the season, like Rip Vam Winkle's drink, they didn't count. The bears cannot longer be scared with frost reports. It seemed to be generally conceded that the crop is a large one and the bulls make but feeble resistance to the decline in prices. The current consumption is phenomenally large and probably wouldn't find 7,500,000 bales excessive, but with 7,750,000, with possible approximation to 8,000,000, may prove burdensome. Spot cotton was easier, but without quotable decline.

"Big Sadie's" Orime.

"Big Sadie's" Orime.

RANSOM, Mich., October 20.—Mrs. John Barber, who came here to prevail on her husband to return to his home, was stabbed to the heart by "Big Sadie," a woman with whom he was living. The Barbers lived at Lima, O., and a few days ago Barber deserted his wife and six children, and came to this place with "Big Sadie," a disreputable woman of Lima. He was followed by his wife, who reached here yesterday. She went to the locate where her husband and the woman were staying, and besongth him to return with her to their home. He seemed willing to do so, when the woman interfered, and in a fit of jealous rage plunged a knife into Mrs. Barber's breast. "Big Sadie's" Crime.

Killed His Unfaithful Wife.

Killed His Unfaithful Wife.

Memphis, Tenn., October 20.—E. K. Peterson, an employe of the Illinois Central road, shot and killed his wife last night. Peterson returned home unexpectedly at 10 o'clock, and found his wife and S. M. Maxwell in a compromising situation. The woman was sitting on Maxwell's lap, with her arms about his neck. The husband drew a revolver and fired twice at Maxwell, who drew the woman in front of himself and she received both bullets. The woman died within fifteen minutes. Maxwell was a lodger in Peterson's house. Peterson was arrested and lodged in jail Fatal Boiler Explosion PITTSBURG, October 20.—The boiler of a shifting engine at the Eliza furnace of Jones & Laughlin, bout three miles south of this city, exploded shortly before noon, killing Engineer John Flat-ley and Fireman Thomas McGuff. Pieces of the flying boller struck and injured Joseph Ferrin and John Clarke, employes at the furnace. Both will re-cover. Flatley's body was blown into the Mononga-hela river, a distance of fifty yards. The cause of the explosion is not yet known.

CHEERING GLADSTONE.

The Grand Old Man Starts Upon His Tour of Scotland.

London, October 20.—Mr. Gladstone will be accompanied by his wife throughout his tour of Scotland. They left Liverpool this morning. Four hundred persons gathered at the railway station at Wigan, and Mr. Gladstone was heartily cheered. The crowd shouted that they did not want him to make a speech, but wanted him to reserve his voice in order to be able to speak in Midlothian and demolish the tories. Mr. Gladstone, nevertheless, made a short speech in which he said that Midlothian knew what to, do of itself. Nothing was left for him to do in that respect.

At Preston hundreds of persons gathered at the station to welcome Mr. Gladstone, and he was loudly cheered upon his arrival. When Carlisle was reached, a crowd numbering 500 persons was found waiting for the coming of the train. In the course of his remarks he said he had no fear for Scotland, and hoped that England would do as well in the home rule movement as Scotland.

General Booth's Scheme.

London, October 20.—General Booth, commander-in-chief of the Salvation Army, in speaking of the proposals set forth in his book, "In Darkest England," for the alleviation of the physical est England," for the alleviation of the physical distress of the masses before close attention is paid to their moral and spiritual wants, says that he requires £1,000,000 to carry out the scheme. The Times, commenting on Booth's propositions, says that the world may be excused for feeling shy of his proposals to regenerate society. More serious than many other objections to the plan is the one that General Booth himself appears to be the tortoise upon which the great system is to be poised.

Richmond, Va., October 20.—[Special.]—The First Baptist church of this city has extended a very cordial and delicately-worded invitation to Rev. Dr. Lansing Burroughs to spend the remainder of his days here. Dr. Burroughs was for twenty years prior to 1874 the pastor of that church. He is now old and in rather feeble nealth.
He is in charge of Freemason church at Norfolk,

WASHINGTON, October 20.—Secretary Blaine said this morning, in answer to an inquiry, that the alleged interview with him, published in a syndicate newspaper letter in Washington and elsewhere Sunday morning, touching "The Sphere of Woman," was wholly fiction. He had never uttered a single word of the matter attributed to him.

THE THIRD PARTY IN GEORGIA

ARE READY TO TAKE A HAND

In the Political Campaigns of the Future.

CHAIRMAN DICKEY IS NOW HERE.

An Organizer to be Placed in the Field at Once.

EVERY COUNTY TO BE VISITED.

Third-party politics are warming up in Georgia.
The third party prohibitionists are preparing to take an active part in future elections, from county fights to state and congressional combats.
And there will be a prohibition electoral ticket before the people of Georgia in '92.
Professor Samuel Dickey, of Michigan, chairman of the national prohibition committee, was in Atlanta resterday.

man of the national prohibition committee, was in Atlanta yesterday.

He was here to attend a meeting of the state prohibition committee, or rather to effect a reorganization of that body for the purpose of taking hold of and running the prohibition machine in Georgia.

One of the most important pieces of business transacted at the meeting held yesterday was the transacted at the meeting held yesterday was the raising of a fund to put a state organizer in the field, whose especial charge it will be to thoroughly canvass every county and crossroad in the state, organizing third-party or prohibition clubs, as he proceeds.

At the meeting yesterday a new executive head was placed upon the shoulders of the old third-party state committee.

Dr. J. O. Perkins was made chairman, to supercede Mr. Azmon Murphey, who, as Mr. Dickey ex-plained it, believing he could accomplish more for himself in another direction, had allowed his tor nimself in another direction, had allowed his third party ardor to somewhat subside.

Charles D. Barker was made secretary, and A.
A. DeLoach the new treasurer of the committee.
The committee is made up of representatives from the several congressional districts. The old representatives were continued on the committee, the only changes being as stated in the leading spirits of the move.
Five congressional districts were represented at the meeting by delegates, members of the state committee.

Five congressional districts were represented at the meeting by delegates, members of the state committee.

The committee was called together by a circular letter from the national committee, instead of by the ex-chairman, Mr. Azmon Murphey, who, they claimed, repeatedly neglected to take such action.

As stated, the important feature of the meeting was the raising of a fund to support a salaried state organizer. For this purpose $100 per month was subscribed by the state committee. This sum, Professer Dickey says, will be increased by the local committee through the work of the organizer, and also supplemented by the national committee. There will be another meeting of the state committee shortly to appoint the organizer and start him in the field.

Next week the third party club of the city will hold a meeting to begin the work it is given to do for the third-party movement.

The third-party movement.

The third-party men wish it understood that the Third-Party Club of Atlanta is not what is known as the 1800 club, but isn entirely slistinct organizations. The Third-Party Prohibition Club, they explain, is composed of men who will not any vote but a third-party ticket—prohibition ist of practical polities.

After the meeting yesterday a Constitution rein the Kimball.

In speaking of the raising of the fund to support a state organizer, Professor Dickey said:

"This organizer or lecturer will make appointments in all the counties of the state where there is existing the least encouragement for the prohibition movement. These appointments will be at every available point in the county. Two or three weeks will be spent holding these crossroad meetings, at each one of which the organizer will speak and wind up by organizing a prohibition club. After the county is thoroughly worked up, a county convention will be heid. At this conven-

"well, after this, it is essented but calmidates in the field for the offices. We expect to contest all the congressional elections.
"In '92 we will have a full electoral ticket in the field, and expect to poll a large vote for it. Over 3,000 votes were cast for the prohibition ticket in '88. I think there is not the least doubt that in '92 the vote for the electoral ticket to be put out by the prohibitionists of Georgia will be very much larger than this. It is going to surprise somebody. It is born out by facts."

Professor Dickey left New York, the headquarters of the prohibition committee, last Monday a week ago, October 13th.

During his trip he has held meetings similar to that held in Atlanta, yesterday, in Delaware, Maryland, West Virginia and North Carolina. He goes from here to Nashville, Tenn., and other points to inaugurate the third-party work.

goes from here to Nashville, Tenn., and other points to inaugurate the third-party work.

"The party is well organized in the northern states," continued Mr. Dickey, "and to repeat what I have just written in a letter to one of our party organs, I am surprised at the great success with which we are meeting in the northern states where we have not been organized. In some of the southern states we have five organizations, in Tennessee, Maryland, Kentucky, West Virginia and North Carolina, for instance. In these states the people are enthused over the movement. They are carnest and plucky, and are not afraid to go down in their pockets a little for the furtherance of the cause in which they are enilisted, In not one instance have I seen any difficulty in raising money to support the state enlisted, In not one instance have I seen any difficulty in raising money to support the state organizer. In North Carolina we asked for $100 per month, and half that amount was raised in a few minutes. At the meeting in Wheeling, West Virginia, we raised the full amount at one meeting. To show to what extent we have carried the work of organization, I have on file in my office the names of over $0.000 members of committees in thirty states."

"What about presidential candidates in '92?"

"There will be no trouble on that score. It is a littleprevious yet, but I can say this much, we will have good men—men who would do the country credit as chief exocutive."

"Is anybody particularly spoken of among the leaders?"

"Yes; many are already urging the renominaleaders?"

"Yes; many are already urging the renomination of Mr. St. John, but, personally, I doubt if he would again accept, though there is no question as to the high estimate in which he is held by the people of the country?"

"And for the other end of the ticket?"

"Well, probably the most prominently mentioned man for vice president on the prohibition ticket is Mr. Joshua Levering, of Maryland, the well-known coffee importer."

In speaking of the sources from which the prohibition party draws its strength, Mr. Dickey said heretofore in the northern states the majority of the third-paam men were from the republican ranks, but that the proportion was now nearly equally divided between the democratic and republican parties.

"In the south," he said, "we get fully three-fourths of our strength from the democratic party. At a meeting in Greensboro, N. C., recently, out of forty-two present forty had been democrats and only two republicans."

Treasury Department.

WASHINGTON, October 20.—Application has been made to the treasury department by importers who had tobacco in the bonded warehouses ers who had tobacco in the bonded warehouses prior to the passage of the act of October 1, 1880, for permission to withdraw the same at the weights as ascertained at the time of said withdrawals. These applications are based on the second provise of section 50 of the tariff act, which prescribes that "when duties are based on the weight of the merchandize doposited in any public or private bonded warehouse, said duties shall be levied and collected upon the weight of such merchandize at the time of its withdrawal." Assistant Secretary Spaulding says that after a careful consideration of the matter, the department is of the opinion that such applications cannot be granted, inasmuch as under the first provise of said section special privilege is conferred upon merchandise which like tobacce, is subject to increased duties under the new tariff act, of allowing it to be withdrawn for consumption at an time prior to February 1st next, upon the pay ment of the duty at the lower rates prescribed by the old tariff acts.

ARRESTING THE ITALIANS.

New Orleans Police Say They Have Hennessey's Murderers.

New Obleans, October 20.—The police last night arrested forty-odd Italians at the grocery of Carlo Grafflero, corner of Burgundy and Contistreets. The officers noticed a large number of Italians dropping into the place in twos and threes, and believing that there was something wrong, forced their way in and found a man addressing the crowd present in Italian. Charging that it was an unlawful assembly, all persons present were arrested and carried to the jail. In the meanwhile, the rumors that a number of strange Italians were holding an indignation meeting in the house attracted a large crowd around the place, who manifested their hostility to the foreigners, When the latter were brought to the station it was discovered that not one had a cent or home of any kind, and that the entire party had arrived yesterday from Chicago, and had been told to meet at Graffiero's place.

As the men could give no explanation of themselves, or why they came to New Orleans or met at the grocery, they were locked up at the police station, charged with being dangerous, suspicious characters.

The police also arrested Manuel Pietre, whom selves, or why they came to New Orleans or met at the grocery, they were locked up at the police station, charged with being dangerous, suspicious characters.

The police also arrested Manuel Pietro, whom they charge with not only being one of the men they charge with not only being one of the men they charge with not only being one of the men they charge with not only being one of the men they charge with not only being one of the men they charge with not only being one of the men they charge with not only the matter, but actually the man who fired the fatal shot. They claim they have the case in excellent condition; that the murderers have been arrested, and that there is sufficient evidence to convict them. According to their view of the matter, the murder was ordered by the Mattrangas, who are heads of the Sicilian gang. Joe Macheca, under the name of John Peterson, then leased Mastero the house, from which the assasins watched Hennessey and finally fired on him. The murder itself was committed by six or seven men, of whom Schaffidl, Mastero, Bagnetto, incardera and Pictro were five. The other Italian prisoners, except some fow, regarded as important witnesses or accessories to the crime, have been released. More evidence has been found against Mecheca, he being identified by two negro women, who lived next to the Mastero house, as having been seen by them at the house several times just before the murder. In his statement he declares he was never in that portion of New Orleans. He is now identified by two white and two colored women as having leased the Mastero house under a different name and having been seen frequently in that neighborhood.

Tony Matranga and Vincento Carruse, who were arrested a few days ago and released, were arrested again today and committed to the parish prison, charged with being accessories to the assassination of Chief of Police Hennessey. As each day passes, additional information is being obtained that it is hoped will convict those already in the meshes of the law and several working quietly and are not giving their enemies a chance to learn what evidence they are gathering.

From what can be learned there is hardly any doubt but that the five men who committed the crime, and the villanous brains that gave birth to the foul plot, are among those who are now in jail. One or two more of the conspiratars are still at large, but it is only a question of time before they, too, will be behind the bars, and it is safe to say that when the trial comes up, the police will be able to produce sufficient information to send the entire gang to the gallows.

MORE EVIDENCE FOUND.

Pietro, one of the suspects, was identified today by a colored woman who saw him last Monday receive two guns from two other Sicilians. Joe Macheca has been further identified as a constant visitor to the cobbler shop which he worked and placed Mastero in it ostensibly to follow has occupation, but in reality to watch the movements of Hennessey. The conclusion generally arrived at is that the assassination was inspired by the Macheca-Matranga gangs.

A telegram was sent to the Pinkertons yesterday, asking them to assist in the heart for Chief Hennessey's assassins. This morning a reply was received from W. A. Pinkerton, saying he would be here at once to take part personally in the

Be Above Suspicion,

Re Above Suspicion,

It is a gratifying feeling among many that their lives are above suspicion. Yet how many good people on account of circumstantial surroundings have had the finger of unjust suspicion directed toward them. Carbuncles, unyielding sores, pimples on the face, rough skin having an eruptive appearance, etc., are in the eyes of so many regarded suspiciously as indicating the presence of some contagious blood disease, and pointed questions asked that are productive of considerable annoyance. These skin blemishes and eruptive tendencies of course find their origin in the blood, but not necessarily the result of contagion. The blood may have become impure on account of colds and exposure, improper food, weak digestion, urinary disorders, etc. However, it is well to remove the unnatural condition of the blood and the flesh by a prompt use of Dr. John Bull's Sarsaparilla. It regulates affairs internally and externally, beautifies the skin and restores impaired organic functions to their normal strength and activity.

P. T. BARNUM AND J. A. BAILEY'S GREATEST SHOW ON EARTH.

The Whole Mammoth Exhibition Just as It The Whole Mammoth Exhibition Just as It was in London.

The British public are notoriously the most difficult on earth to please in the way of amusements. Every holiday season in London great spectacular plays and pantomimes are produced at the leading theaters, which are gotten up upon the most extensive and magnificent scale, and at an immense a people. In opposition to all this the Barnum and Bailey Greatest Show on Earth, at an outlay of $500,900 in cash for transportation alone across the Atlantic, an undertaking that required four of those big ocean steamers, exhibited in the city of London for a period of over three months and realized a business unparalleled in the annals of amusements. All the great plays and spectacles formerly produced there were, in very truth, made small, by comparison with their tremendous. American enterprise, and not only England but the entire of Europe was struck dumb with amazement. Never in their wildest dreams did the people of Europe conceive of such a magnificent exhibition as the one given them by Barnum & Bailey, for in addition to a triple circus, hippodrome, double menagerie, horse fair, two herds of elephants, elevated stage performances and all the other attractions that have made these shows the first in the universe, there has been added Irme Kiraliy's "Nero, or The Destruction of Rome." "Now to comprehend this regal part of the monster shows one must recollect that 1,500 people were required to perform in it. Just.think Was there ever such an overwhelming extertain. was in London. the monster shows one must recollect that 1,500 people were required to perform in it. Just.think! Was there ever such an overwhelding extertainment ever thought of in the history of the world? The finest scenery ever constructed, the costlest and most charming costumes, the finest ladies. The finest scenery ever constructed, the costlest and most colossal and stupendous parade in the streets the mind of man ever conceived. Requiring a stage 450 feet long, a tent 600 feet long, and five trains of cars to transport it. No wonder the whole of Europe was amazed, as all others will be who see it in this country, for it will be here, precisely the same as it was in London, on October 25th.

THE VETERANS

WILL HAVE THREE COMPANIES IN

After the Regular Meeting Adjourns They Unanimously Go Into Politics and Endorse General Gordon.

The Confederate Veterans held their regular meeting last night.

There was a large attendance and great enthu-

the hall was crowded and many were standing.

It was a regular veterans' love-feast, with many pleasant incidents of an unusual nature.

Thirteen new applications for membership came in—a fact showing the prosperous condition of the association.

the association.

Among these applications was that of General W. S. Walker, than whom there is no more popnlar soldier in Atlanta. He was present, and in response to continued calls made quite an appro-priate and happy little speech.

A CONFEDERATE FLAG. One of the prettiest incidents of the evening ans the presentation of a confederate flag to the

Mrs. Bird was escorted to the hall by a committee of the association—Judge Hillyer, Dr. Divine, and Colonel B. F. Abbott. In presenting the flag, she said:

In presenting the flag, she said:

"In May, 1885, when President Davis came to Atlanta, to be present at the unveiling of the menument to Ben Hill, this flag waved over him as he rode to the depot. It was placed there by Henry Grady, who rode beride Mr. Davis, "Thank you, young who," said Mr. Davis, 'I love that flag,' and old and feeble as he was, he raised his hat to it. I love it, too,' said Mr. Grady, 'for under it my father fought and d'ed in Virginia."

Mrs. Bird then reclued the poem:

"The stars are not extinguished
When they set upon the dull horizon,
They but go to shine in other skies.
Then appear in ours, as fresh and bright
As when it first arose.
Thus in the joy of kindly trust
We bid each parting friend a brief farewell,
Weeping, we coumit their dust.
To the safe keeping of the silent cell.
Safely within that quiet resting place
We have faid their wearied limbs
And bid the clay press lightly on them
"Till the night be past,
And the far east give note of coming day."

Colonel W. L. Calhoun received the flag on behalf of the association in a neat speech of thanks.

The vaterans will have three companies, in their

THREE COMPANIES. The veterans will have three companies in their battalion to take part in the sham battle

Thursday.

Their intalion organization was perfected last evening by the election of hon. W. A. Hemphili as major. After the meeting of the association had ad-iourned, an informal meeting was called to take action concerning Governor Gordon's candidacy for the senate.

General W. S. Walker was made chairman.

General W. S. Walker was made chairman. General W. S. Walker was made chairman.

There were repeated calls for Hon. W. A. Hemphil, and in response to them he took the platform andst darfening applause.

"My ex-confederate conrades," said he. "We cead in Holy Writ that when the prophet, Elijah, was carried up in a charlot of fire, his mantle fell upon the shoulders of El Isha, a worthy successor and follower of the great prophet. We behold tonight a man in our city wearing worthily two mantles. When I look upon the soldierly form of General John B. Gordon I see around him the battled-stained and storm-rent mantle of the immortal Robert E. Lee. [Continued applause.]

"I see around his shoulders the dignity of our confederacy transferred from the spotdesy statesman and chief, Jefferson Davis, a mantle from which shines out the glory of that matchless conception of patrictism of which our southern hopes were both, and for which so many [of our brave brethren offered up their lives. [Applause.] These mantles clothe General John B. Gordon, the commander of the Confederate Veterans's Association, with every idea we love and every patriotic sentiment that we chefish. [Prolonged cheering.] He stands today the representative of southern chivalry, patriotism and statesmanship. A blow aimed at him is against all that he represents, and againsts every confederate soldier. [Great applause.]

I believe the farmers have been down-trodden I believe the farmers have been down-trodden and oppressed. They have grievances to right. I am with them in their fight, endorse all they have done except their fight on Gordon. Now, brethren, let us meet and pass resolutions endorsing General John B. Gordon for United States senator, showing him that the confederates still love and admire their old chieftain."

Every man in the hall seconded this sentiment. Judges George Hillyer was the first to gain the attention of the chair. "I offer," said he, "this resolution: 'Resolved, That the confederate yeterans herein assembled the confederate veterans herein assembled se the capdidacy of the statesman, here and t. John B. Gordon, for the senate of the Onderse Line B. Gordon, 101 Date of Line B. Gordon, 101 United States."

This was adopted without one dissenting voice, and amidst great enthusiasm.

Attention, Veterans!

All confederate veterans who intend taking part in the cham battle Thursday, are requested to meet promptly at 8 o'clock Thursday morning, so as to form and complete the organization. Eight o' clock, sharp!

A Timely Query

Hello! Did you ever think, if you have a tele-phone, how pleasant it would be if, when the party you called for comes to his telephone to rephone, how pleasant it would be if, when the party you called for comes to his telephone to respond, he would simply announce his number, and thus relieve any uncertainty in your mind as to whether the operator had correctly understood and executed your order? If a mistake had been made, how much more quickly it could be corrected, and if you had the right party, with how much more ease and promptness would you proceed with your talk, than if you first hear, "Hello!" and then ask, "Is this No. 75?" and finally get to business. Suppose you try it yourself, after thus giving your number, when you are called, and make it easier for the other fellow. This is one of the regular rules on the card, too. Probably you haven't read it. There are some other rules that you overlook, and if you observed them you would find your telephone service improved. Speaking of mistakes of the operators, they do make them sometimes, don't they? [Do you wonder? Have you any idea how many orders each one of them hears in a day and executes correctly? They come very fast at certain times of the day, and the mistakes are a microscopic fraction of the entire number. Do you think you would do any better or make any fewer mistakes? As a fact, now, do you make any fewer mistakes in your business than the telephone operater does in hers? "Goodbye."

Happy George Wilson! Happy George Wilson!

The seating capacity of DeGive's was well tested last night by George Wilson's mammoth minstrels. The manager and the audience were both well pleased, the former with the packed house, and the latter with the packed programme.

A substantial excellence of musical productions, marked novelty in wit, thoroughness of the "light fantastic" and the genuineness of the burlesque were the causes of the spontaneous and unanious applause.

Many new features were introduced and executed with brilliancy. The military uniforms lent the circle a rare charm as to combination of colors. Lew Benedict showed his old-time humor in the song entitled "He Ain't in It," which was applicable to the echo.

song entitled "He Ain't in It," which was appliauded to the echo.

The singing of Ed Kelly, William Earl and the Fulton brothers won extensive favor with the audience. George Wilson was 'the favorite with the adolescence of the galleries, as well as with the aristocrats of the parquet. Wilson is the very allegory of mirth, his personations and songs producing vociferous merriment. He combines so many strong points that the audience is his own at the moment he treads the boards.

Duval, a marvel in his contortions, was well received, while the terpsichorean honors were carried off by the Gypsy Dance, an artistic ballet which proved excellent training.

Although it cost a whole dollar to see George Wilson's men perform, but few would begrudge that sum for the immense entertainment.

Known throughout the south as he is, George Known throughout the south as he is, George Wilson may ever be proud of the reception Atlantians give him. He is, and always will be, a great favorite here, and well does he deserve it, because no minstrel studies the wants of theater-goers more than he.

These glasses have won the admiration of all who have used them. They can be worn any length of time at one sitting and give a marvelous clearness of vision. They stand unrivaled in their spiendid reputation.

Mr. Hawkes not only has the best glasses, but carefully examines the eye of each patient, and gives indespensable advice as to the proper selection of glasses, having had an experience of eighteen years in this branch of science.

SPECTACLE FRAMES Are an important part to be considered in the selection of spectacles. Some persons are very broad between the eyes, while others are quite narrow. It being necessary that the axis of the eye and that of the lenses should coincide, great care should be taken in their selection.

We give a few illustrations of perfect and imperfect fitting eye-glass and spectacle frames below.

Figures 4 and 5 represent incorrect fitting eye-Figure 7 represent eye-glasses which are properly adjusted.

IMITATIONS.

The market is full of imitations, represented to be the same as Hawkes' new crystallized lenses. These imitations are, in most cases, productive of positive injury to the eyes of the wearer. Many dealers will recommend inferior spectacles and eye-glasses, and those of lower price, which afford more profit to themselves.

Manufacturing Department.

We are now prepared to MAKE TO ORDER spectacles and eye-glasses of every description, which will be equal in finish and workmanship to any glasses made in the United States. Oculists' prescriptions will be filled with accuracy and dispatch.

EVERY PAIR WARRANTED.

The Danger in the Fourth.

We publish elsewhere a communication from Newnan on the danger which threatens the democrats in the fourth district. It is a subject to which THE Constitution has repeatedly referred and one of which they should be well

There is no reason why Mr. Moses, the democratic candidate, should not be sent to congress from that district, backed by a splendid and overwhelming endorsement-by a majority which could not be contested by a partisan republican congress, and take his seat in honor and without fear. There are democrats enough in the district to give him a majority which would put his enemies to shame and rout the republican element in that section. What are they going to do ahout it? The republicans of the district are active; their emissaries are at work in the towns, in the fields-in every nook and corner where a vote is to be had. The district has been flooded with republican money; Johnson and his men are thoroughly organized; they are making a determined, a desperate fight, and they will win unless the democrats rally to the rescue and meet them with their own weapons.

We have no abuse for Johnson, the republican candidate. This is not a campaign of abuse, and Johnson is doubtless a clever man in his way. But his way is republican and he is fighting the democrats. This is his right; but shall it be his victory?

The democrats of the fourth district must wake up to the danger that threatens them. It will not do to send Mr. Moses to congress with a small majority. If he goes there with such credentials the doors will be barred against him, his seat contested and given to a republican. He must be elected by a majority which will be beyond question, which will leave no loophole for dispute.

Think of the democrats who were ousted at the recent session; how the republicans tore their majorities to tatters and deprived them of the seats to which they were elected; and let the memory of their defeat inspire the democrats of this now doubtful district to renewed

There is not an hour to lose: they are now almost in sight of the polls. If they do not rally and vote to a man the victory will be lost; republicanism will gain a foothold in the fourth district and the interests of democracy in Georgia will suffer.

Speed to the work! Let the clarion call of the democratic bugles summon the last laggard to the front and signalize that triumphant victory which shall make the fourth district a battle ground to be proud of!

A Hand Extended. We find in The Augusta Chronicle the following editorial article from the pen of our genial friend, Colonel Patrick Walsh: Our distinguished friend, Colonel E. P. Howell is a practical statesman, and THE CONSTITUTION seems to be in favor of the subtreasury bill or something better. Colonel Howell is again in the anddle. "In an evil hour he was prevailed upon' to favor a tariff for revenue with incidental pro tection, but he has abandoned this "vagary," and is now in favor of sailors' rights, free trade, free ships and the subtreasury bill or something

The colonel has gone back on his promises. Some years ago, when the editor of this paper was lonesome at a memorable state convention, he told the story about the fat man who fell in the ditch and could not extricate himself fellow came along and tried to get his friend out.

After tugging away for some time at his big friend, he despairingly said: "Gol darn it, Bill old fellow, I can't pull you out, but I c with you all right until some fellows come along and pull us both out." And now Colonel Howell has gone off and left us. He is on top again, and "there is nothing that succeeds like success." Colonel Howell is one of the most sagacious poli-ticians in the south. It will be, as the boys say a cold day when the colonel gets left again. The colonel has a big heart and a level head. While we hate to part company with him, we forgive him for his last datch story. The colonel is dig ging bait no longer. He is on velvet.

Our friend is mistaken. We have not deserted him. It is true we have scrambled out of the ditch, but we are still standing where we can extend a helping hand to Colonel Patrick Walsh. We are convinced that very little pulling and tugging will be required to get him out, and it is very necessary that he should come out.

We found it impossible to stay in the protection ditch and fight the infamous McKinley law as it should be fought. It i an affair wholly vicious in its effects. It robs the poor and increases prices in a hundred different and unnecessary directions. It is a sectional bill in the worst of its features and hits the south heavy and hard. It robs the southern farmer and places burdens on every southern interest. We believe that the only way to fight this iniquitous law is to go at it like Colonel Walsh used to fight yellow jackets when boy. The law shows us what the republimean by protection. It is not what THE CONSTITUTION meant, nor what The Chronicle means, but it is impossible to stand on one foot all day and make excuses for the other. If the democratic party is to fight republicanism successfully it must fight republican measures. Especially is it the duty of democrats to fight this infamous law which hits the south so heavily.

In our opinion the south would not be washington. He was proceeding to fill all of his pockets with these when the landlord suddenly descended upon him, took away the letters and promptly put the reporter out of the room. Then had a fire built on the hearth and burned up every scrap of paper he could find among the young man's effects without reading a line of any of them. It was a heroic thing to do.

"I may have burned up a few government bonds and things of that sort," the landlord said the next day in a published letter, "and I have re-Chroniele means, but it possible to stand on one foot all day and make excuses for the other. Our hand is extended to our friend. Will Colonel Walsh permit us to lift him out of the ditch, so that he may share with us the luxury of the velvet whereof he writes?

Capital Talks to Labor. Mr. Chauncey Depew has been talking to the Locomotive Engineers at Pittsburg. He made a pretty speech, and said some very pleasant things. In the course of his remarks the speaker said that most of the stuff written about the relations of capital and labor was mere trash, not worth reading. Then he proceeded to discuss the subject himself, throwlng in a lot of good advice to his hearers. Mr. Depew, personally, is as clever as he is brilliant, but he is a capitalist, and his sympathies are on the side of capital. He has fallen into the habit his brother monopolists have of talking down to labor from a lofty height. He likes to give advice to workingmen, and is never weary of telling them what they should do in order to better their condition.

We have had too much of this sort of thing. Capital is always talking down to abor, and giving advice. Nine times out of ten what is said is mere trash-like the books denounced by Mr. Depew. The intelligent workingmen-the so-called common people of this country-are educated in the same schools, from the same textbooks used by the capitalists, and so far from being fools they are just as capable of dealing with the social, economic and political problems of the day as the millionaires. They know when they are robbed under the pretense of taxation, and they know who the robbers are. They know why the rich are growing richer, and why the poor are growing poorer. They know that they are misgoverned in the interests of the monopolists, and they have sense enough to think out a remedy, and courage enough to apply it.

The sleek capitalist who is anxious to talk down to the working people and present them with some good advice, should pause and reconsider. The toilers of the land are men of his race. They are readers and thinkers, and understand the situation just as well as he does. A rich man cannot pull the wool over their eyes. His patronizing airs inspire hatred and contempt, and hi advice is not wanted.

The people do not want any more talk from capital. They want to see it submit to the law of common justice, instead of getting above it. They want to see it under the government instead of on top.

Millionaires made a big mistake when they take it for granted that the man who works with his hands is incapable of thinking. Sooner or later they will find that they do not monopolize the brain power of the country, and that there is enough of it in the field and factory to plan and carry out the great reforms that are needed to maintain a government of the people, for the people, and by the people. American labor cannot be kept down and degraded. It will rise and make itself felt at the ballot box, and its voice will soon be dictating terms in our state and federal councils.

WHAT IS to hinder the president from making Quay chief justice of the supreme court? Surely this great and good man would make a good republican chief justice.

THE PHILADELPHIA PRESS says that Delamater has the regular republicans behind him. Well, we should smile. Whenever an embezzler or a swindler is a candidate, the "regular" republicans flock to him with one

THE REPUBLICAN census has been shown to be a fraud. But this was to be expected. A dishonest party cannot take an honest census. GOVERNOR HILL is going into West Virginia as well as Ohio. It is about time for a leader of his ability and experience to take charge of affairs.

MR. McKinley will be retired, but his bill will live after him to rob the poor for the benefit of the rich.

EDITORIAL COMMENT.

A CHICAGO NEWSPAPER is about to try an experiment. It has engaged Bill Nye to do general reporting for two weeks. Nye will take assignats like the other reporters, but will be allowed to write up matters in an original way from his own point of view. It would be a good thing if all capable reporters were allowed the license. A writer's individuality is a big thing and when it is crushed by the iron-clad rules of city editor nothing is gained, but sometimes the paper loses by it. Under dictation Bill Nye would ubtless turn out very stupid copy. THE WASHINGTON POST says: The industrial development of the south during the last ten or

The democratic executive committee of Upson county will meet at the courthouse the on Wednesday next, the 22d instant. -The Brunswick Times of Sunday contains this comment on the announcement that Senator

Brown would speak at the State-fair:

The announcement has occasioned considerable surprise, but it should be remembered that Senator Brown is a man who has been given to surprising people ever since he entered politics.

Old citizens recall the fact that Senator Brown's first appearance in politics took the state unawares. When Senator Brown was nominated for governor years ago, the was an unknown man. He was a delegate to the convention that nominated him, and his name was not thought of for the nomination. But a deadlock arose and Senator Brown was taken up as a compromise candidate. Senator Brown's nomination surprised the state, and the way he defeated Mr. Hill is still a matter of wonder to old-timers. But Senator Brown's reappearance in politics after the war was probably the greatest surprise he ever spring on the state. It was supposed that Senator Brown was out of the running so far as political honors in Georgia were cencerned. Suddents heavers he was annotined to the senate in Brown would speak at the State-fair probably the greatest surprise he ever ne state. It was supposed that Sena-was out of the running so far as nors in Georgia were concerned. Sudpolitical honors in Georgia were concerned. Suddenly, however, he was appointed to the senate in Governor Gordon's stead, and the entire state was amazed. In view of these things small wonder should be occasioned by Senator Brown's announcement that he proposes to take a hand in the political fight now raging in Georgia. It may be, however, that before Senator Brown gets through he will give the state something to stare at.

—Southern Alliance Farmer: This week's Southern Alliance Farmer carries to our subscribers another letter from that splendid writer leorgian," who, in his last letter so ably defined our subtreasury plan, and by his convincing logic silenced all those who assailed it. This letter from "Georgian" not only defends our order and its principles, but will open the eyes of the people of the southito the immense benefit the alliance will bring to the whole country. It will warm the hearts of alliance land to read the words of this farsighte patriot, proving by argument that can not b overcome, the great power of the farmer through the alliance to win for our country what we hav so long labored for in vain. It does not leave much ground for the enemies of the alliance to stand on, when men of such ability as "Georgian" endorse our principles. It is a matter to be specially noted that not only does "Georgian" endorse our principles of nonsectionalism and tariff reform, but he takes up the railroad platform of our Georgia alliance, advocating railroad control through the state and national commissions, and not only favors it in strongest terms, but points out that it is necessary if we are to create railroad out that it is necessary as to enable us to reach our systems, sufficiently great to enable us to reach our for western trade, and direct trade with Europe for western trade, and shows how the alliboth of which he favors and shows how the alli-ance can bring them about. It is understood, on what is considered good authority, that the Santa Fe is to extend its line from Kansas City to Memphis, paralleling the Kansas City, Fort Scott and Memphis road. The line, it is said, will run through the counties of Douglas and Ozark in Missouri, and through Sathard Paralleling Carlotte and Carlotte Carl Douglas and Ozark in Missouri, and through Sat-ton, Sharp, Independence, Jackson, Poinsett and Crittenden in Arkaneas to Memphis. The new route will assume definite proportions within the next eighteen months. Should the report preve true, and the extension be made, the Santa Fe will prove a troublesome competitor of the Mem-

In August, 1889, the Knoxville, Cumberland In August, 1889, the Knoxville, Cumberland Gap and Louisville railroad was completed to a connection with the Louisville and Nashville railroad, and through trains are now running from Knoxville to Louisville over the row jine. Knoxville secured this railroad by subscribing $225,000 to its capital stock. This was done by popular vote on August 13, 1887, and on the same day the city subscribed $275,000 to the Knoxville Southern railroad. The former has been in successful operation for nearly a year, and through trains are now running on the Knoxville Southern, between Knoxville and Atlanta.

A Scottdale, Pa., telegram says that trade in the A scottonic, ra., telegram says that trade in the coke regions is becoming more and more perplexed by the scant car supply. The efforts of the railroad companies to furnish a liberal supply have been unavailing and it is readily conceded that the famine, instead of abating, is growing gradually worse. Shippers and consumers are authoring in consequence. With the former there is too much coke and with the latter not enough.

The Missouri, Kansas and Texas railroad has just received at Hannibal, Mo., several train loads of freight destined for one point and for one purpose. One hundred and six carloads, averaging 44,000 pounds to the car, and confisting exclusively of cotton manufacturing machinery, was delivered to the road last Saturiay, to be conveyed to the new cotton mill in process of crection at Denison, Tex.

At the next meeting of the presidents, October 28th, they will further consider the proposition of Chairman Walker to establish a joint agency for handling scaleard traffic, and it is the general opinion that it will be acted upon favorably. The same meeting will also consider a revision of the percentages upon which a division of trafficis made at the Miscoari river.

If a fireman has much work to do about a furnace door, says The Western Kailway, he is no earthly good as a look-out. The heat and light of a furnace render one's eyes useless for several seconds after having looked into the firebox. It is our belief that it would be a good idea for our mountain roads to have a look-out on each passenger engine: Surely if it is necessary on a senger engine. necessary on the crooked mountain his the curves are so sharp that the enghardly see the fireman.

Close of the War.

cial.]-The charges of cowardice and neglect of duty, made by R. H. Duncan, of Caine's district, of this county, published in The Bail Ground Independent, was this day, in Duncan's own district, refuted and proven false by a cloud of witnesses who were comrades of Colonel Winn in the Twenty-Fourth Georgia regiment.

THE ANSWER COMES. Colonel Winn had not seen the charge until he arrived at Duncan's creek picnic, where he had an appointment to speak today. During his address he read the charges to the audience, and stated that he would not reply to it if there were any of his comrades present, and he thereupon asked:

"If there are any of the boys of the Twenty-Fourth Georgia that were with me during the war present, rise and say whether the charges are true or not."

Some eight or ten men arose from the crowd, each one stating that it was a lie, and not a word of truth in it, and thereupon one at a time denounced it as false. The following affidavit was given on the spot by some of those who were present:

Georgia, Gwinnett county.—Personally appeared Hugh Duncan, Harrison Mattex, D. D. Halman, W. S. Durham, C. C. Cross and E. D. Hays, who, being sworn, and upon their corporal oaths, say that each and every one of ms were in the war with Colonel Thomas E. Winn and members of the Twenty-fourth Georgia regiment: that they have Winn and members of the Twenty-fourth Georgia regiment; that they have read the chargos of R. H. Duncan in The Ball Ground Independent and they now say that said charges, as therein made, are not true, but that on the contrary, Winn was as brave a man, soldier and officer, as they knew of in the war, and that the charge of cowardice or neglect of duty was never before laid at his door. Some of us were with him longer than others, from six months to over three years, and we speak from personal knowledge of Winn, and his career as a man and soldier. The charge does Colonel Winn, a brave man in time of war and peace, a great injustice, and we come up voluntarily, and gladly make this affadavit in behalf of justice, truth and fair-dealing.

THE JURY RECOMMEND HIM TO

THE MERCY OF THE COURT. The Negro Rapist Will Probably Serve the Limit of the Law for the Crime with Which He Was Charged. Kit Glanton is guilty.

That is the verdict of the jury rendered yesterday evening.

The jury went out a few minutes before 6 o'clock, and was only out about ten minutes when a verdict of guilty, with a recommen dation to the mercy of the court, was brought in.

The crime with which Glanton was charged, was an assault on a ten-year-old negro girl, committed on the day of the midsummer festival, last July.

July.

The name of the girl was Minnie Lee Winkfield

The most dastardly ever and the crime was one of the most dastardly ever committed in the county, according to the statenent of the victim.

Glanton was arrested and fully identified, and the grand jury brought in a true bill indicting him for the crime of rape. The case was called last week, but was postponed until yesterday. Solicitor General C. D. Hill being engaged in supreme court, he delegated Mr. W. P. Hill to act in his place as prosecutor.

Very little trouble was had in securing a jury, and the trial was begun yesterday morning.

Mr. Howell C. Erwin defended the case. The evidence for the state was overwhelmingly against the prisoner and, despite the able efforts of his counsel, Glanton was convicted as above stated. The recommendation for mercy saved his neck. The penalty in such cases is from one to twenty years, and Glanton stands a good showing to get the full benefit of the law.

He is a brutal looking negro, and all through the trial seemed perfectly indifferent as to the result.

THE STOCK MARKET.

The Day on the Floor of the New York Stock Exchange.

NEW YORK, October 20.—The wiping out of the entire surplus of bank reserves again, as shown by the statement of Saturday, once more-brings the monetary question before Wall street as a subject for discussion and uneasiness, and the calculations of the habitnes of the street are reach bringed when the preclability of easy money. again hinged upon the probability of easy money for reverse. It is estimated that the expenditures of the government, taken in conjunction with the issue of silver certificates from this time on, will exceed the amount of funds absorbed by the government for customs and revenue, but accusations of the locking up of money for speculative purposes by some large interests are heard again, and the absorption of over $20,000,000 surplus in so short a time, with no speculation of moment, is rather surprising. It is assumed that any im-provement in the monetary situation abroad will induce the buying of American securities wheneyer our market gives any encouragement. The bank statement had no appreciable effect here on Saturday, but foreigners were inclined to think that it settled the question as to whether there would be any marked improvement here, and the market there was lower this morning. Reports were circulated, also, that there was news in London of further financial difficulties in South America, and selling in this market, apparently for London account, was a most influential factor in our market today. This selling was ably seconded by the bear party and room traders, who uncedly bearish this morning, and the were pronouncedly bearish this morning, and the temper of the market was therefore weak and de-rihing throughout the day. The market was active only in spots, and those spots were where the greatest pressure of short stocks was felt. The opening followed London, all stocks being from ½ to % per cent lower than Saturday's closing figures. Prices have in early dealings clearly showed a rendency to continue the upward movement of saturday, although there was little actual strength shown anywhere except in Chicago Gas and North American, but the fact remains that in spite of lower London figures and a lower opening, frac-tional advances were scored in the first hour. Special pressure was brought to bear upon Union Pacific, Louisville and Nashville and Atchison, however, and the course of prices was reversed, when a new element of weakness appeared in Sugar Refineries, in which the prospects of further legal impediments to reorganization were made most of, to shake out speculative holders of cer-tificates. Large amounts of stock changed hands, and a decline of 234 per cent was forced in it. Brocks of the regular list mentioned with some of the Grangers, notably Rock Island and Burlington, also felt the influence, and scored declines from the best figures of the first hour of from ½ to 1½ per cent. In the meantime, the remainder of the list was dull and heavy within exceedingly the list was dull and heavy within exceedingly barrow limits, fluctuations being barely sufficient to mark the tendency in prices. The downward movement, however, was not allowed to lag in leaders, and ceased only with the close of busiess, the close being quiet but heavy to weak, at or near the lowest prices of the day in most stocks, notwithstanding the rally of 1½ per cont in Sugar Refineries. Final changes in most of the list, while almost invariably in the direction of lower figures, are for small fractions, and the enly important losses were in Louisville and Nashville 1½, Burlington and Quincy 1¼, and Rock Island 11/8 per cent. NEW YORK, October 20—3:00 p. m.—London prices were somewhat lower this morning, and there were pretty heavy sales for foreign account during the open hours of the session. This caused some decline from opening prices and a general hestancy on all sides. The loan crowd showed a heavy decrease in the short interest, which takes just so much support from the parket and would just so much support from the market, and would prove that the bears have succeeded in getting back their stocks without much effort, which will back their stocks without much effort, which will give them renewed confidence in again attacking prices. Money was in plentiful supply in spite of the heavy decrease of bank reserves, and if the declining markets continue there will be little danger of any stringency of that article. As yet there are no indications of any active measures being taken to stop the demoralization of rates in the southwest and until we are some systems of the southwest, and until we see some evidence of this we shall not feel very sanguine on the bull side; but Wall street offices are tolerably well liquidated, and even further demoralization in railroad circles will not bring out many more stocks from this side. It is the London market which will hear watching.

which will bear watching.

and favorable weather south, which tends to inand invorable weather south, which tends to increose estimates of the crop and induces considerable selling out by longs and some short selling. A killing frost would check the decline and give us a reaction. As long, however, as the same is deferred we see no reason to look for any improvement, but on the contrary expect a further decline.

2,681 Hubbard, Price & Co.'s Circular. EW YORK, October 20-[Special]—A day of the gest receipts on record, a decline of 2 points in Liverpool, rather close money in New York and London and an intensely bearish sentiment that seems to grow more pronounced as prices decline are the influences that have affected a depression of about 10 points in the market for contracts here today. The general opinion seems to be that lower prices are inevitable in consequence of the necessity for immediate realization upon the large receipts coming to hand. It is rarely that the sen timent in favor of lower prices has come to be as unanimous as at present, and this very unanimity is the only argument that the few bulls that re-main find themselves able to adduce in favor of an improvement. A slight rally was effected at one time on reports of frost at Milledgeville, Rome, Augusta, Americus and Dalton, Georgia, but it was short-lived, as people believe that frost but it was short-lived, as people believe that trost now is not likely to do much harm. The stock in New York today is only about 20,000 bales, of which probably less than 15,000 bales is deliverable on contract. THE CHICAGO MARKET.

Features of the Speculative Movement in Grain and Provisions.

CHICAGO, October 20—Wheat—Trading quite large and the market quite active within a higher range of prices. Speculative offerings were fair, but the demand so active that offerings were fair, but the demand so active that offerings were readily absorbed and did not prevent prices from steadily advancing until higher prices were reached, when the market eased up some under larger offerings. St. Louis, it was claimed, bought freely, and some of the proninent local traders were also on the buying side. Shorts covered freely. The opening was a little tame, but prices, under steady buying, advanced 1½@1/c, then eased off ½c, fluctuated some and closed ½@1c higher than Saturday.

Corn—There was a good trade at higher prices, the feeling developed being much stronger. The better tone was due to good general buying by commission houses, influenced some by had reports regarding husking, and many anticipated a less favorable report in November. The first trades were at an advance of ½@2/c, and under good buying sold up ½c, leacted ½c, advanced ¾c. Grain and Provisions.

good buying sold up %c, reacted %c, advanced %c changed some and closed firm with an advance of Oats were fairly active and stronger and a higher range of prices was recorded and fairly maintained. There was a good outside trade and also a liberal business by local operators. The strength was in a measure helped by that in the Mess pork.—An active business was transacted and prices ruled irregular. The opening sales were made at Saturday's closing figures, and a few lots were sold later at 2½c decline. At the reduction lots were sold later at 2%c decline. At the reduction the demand improved and prices rapidly advanced 55%c60c, but settled back again 75%c10c near the close and ruled steady.

Lard—Trading was active. The opening sales were made at Saturday's closing prices, and prices were advanced irregularly 125%c15c. Later prices settled back 25%c5c and closed steady.

CHICAGO, October 20 .- 2:20 p. m .- All kinds of grain and provisions were very much higher in price today on our board. The strength in wheat was caused by too much confidence by the bears was caused by too much confidence by the bears on Saturday, who evidently sold more than the market warranted. The feeling that the visible supply would show a substantial increase today was the main reason, and although the guess on the visible was verified, the crowd was compelled to cover shorts. Some reports of light stocks in he east and good buying orders generally also had some effect. Do not see any other causes for the substantial advance of today. Corn continues strong on had reports from the fields. The close finds the markets somewhat easier, as many finds the markets somewhat easier, as many wished to take their profits. Oats continue strong and higher, with no signs of a let up. The main feature today was the advance in provisions, Provisions have been quiet for some time and have been very low, especially as compared with the price of corn. The strength in the corn pit stirred up the provision pit, and shorts, undertaking to cover, found very little for sale, and prices of hog products advanced very rapidly. At the close prices were easier, but most of the ad-vance was substantially saved. LAMSON BROS. & Co.

WHAT THE DOCTOR SAYS: A PROMINENT NEW YORK PLY. SICIAN GIVES THIS ADVICE FOR THE CURE OF MUSCULAR RHEUMATISM:

"Be regular in your habits, eat and drink only what you need. If the intestinal action is sluggish take a course of cathartics or some form of diuretic water to carry off the wastes of the body through the kidneys. Have the painful muscles rubbed thoroughly, frequently and fervently, using some scothing lo-tion. I like POND'S EXTRACT for such conditions, and it will promptly take out the soreness."

WHAT THE PATIENT SAYS: "My wife has been efflicted with the theumatism for the past five weeks, and after using every known liniment, your POND'S EXTRACT came and we rejoice to say it is helping her very much."

THE ADVENTISTS.

VERY IMPORTANT MEETING GOING

First General Conference Ever Held in the Southern District Attended by a Large Number of Workers.

Dwelling in tents! The Seventh Day Adventists of district

Out on South Boulevard, where stands that noble structure, a monument to the faithful and persevering efforts of the members of this great Christian organization, the Southern Institute of the Seventh Day Adventists, is a little village of white tents.

The largest one, which is the place of meeting, will seat 1,000 people. The smaller ones, used as dwelling places by the visiting delegates, are pitched in a circle about the main In these tents is being conducted a meeting, the like of which has never occurred this far south before. It is the first general council, or conference, of the workers of district No. 2, Seventh Day

Two years ago a few members of this order pitched their tents out there in the suburbs and began, with their own hands, to build a dwelling place. The result is the large build-ing, the Southern institute, which is the headquarters of this district.

A year ago this district was formed of the states of North Carolina, South Carolina, Georgia, Florida, Alabama, Mississippi, Lou-Georgia, Florida, Alabama, Mississippi, Louisiana, Tennessee and Kentucky.

Each state is put in charge of a superintending worker, and all work under the direction of the district superintendent. Elder R. N. Kilgore, occupies the latter position at present, and is at the head of the council.
Then there are Elder E. E. Marvin, of Tennessee; Elder D. T. Shirewan, of North Carolina; Elder J. W. Scoles, of the Cumberland mission; Elder G. T. Wilson, of Georgia; Elder B. F. Purdham, of Louisiana, and Elder G. B. Starr, of the Central Bible School of Chicago, among the prominent leaders who are taking part in the council.

among the prominent leaders who are taking part in the council.

Besides there are over a hundred workers from all the several states in the district, including a number of ladies.

This district is a mission, exclusively, and all the members are workers. There are about fifty of these here in Atlanta, where the work has taken firm foot and is progressing very gratifyingly.

has taken firm root and as progratifyingly.

The meeting began on Thursday last, and will continue until October 28th, and there are a great many more delegates expected here during this week, and they will bring their tents and pitch them among those of the brethren already arrived.

WHAT THEY ARE DOING.

The object of this meeting is to outline the work for the coming year, and being the first session ever held here, there is an unusual amount of work to do in laying out the field of labor and amounting it among the various labor and apportioning it among the various Besides this, Elder Starr is giving very ireresting Bible lessons every day.

There are three services held each day, at 11 o'clock, 3:30 o'clock and at 7:30 o'clock

o'clock, 3:30 o'clock and at 7:30 o'clock.

All the services are open to the general public, but these three are the regular religious and devotional services.

Among the topics discussed during this week are "The Righteousness of Faith Through Christ", "Civil Government in Religion," "Signs of the Times," Fulfillment of Prophecy," and "Discussions on the Life of Christ."

Those who are conducting the meetings are earnest, zealous, thinking men, and the exercises are beautifully and interestingly conducted.

The Seventh Day Adventists have branches.

The Seventh Day Adventists have branches and missionaries in every land under the sun, and few people who are not familiar with their work and their doctrines have any idea of the magnitude of their labors.

The faith is spreading rapidly in the south, and there will be an army of missionary workers of this faith spread out over this comparatively new field during the coming year.

In an issue last week of the New York Tribune, the following was quoted from the Boston Advertiser:

I am sometimes amazed in passing the great ready-made clothing establishments to note how differently they are regarded than formerly. It was less than a generation go that they were patronized almost exclusively by workingmen, mechanics and farmers who desired rough, cheaplymade clothing. Merchants, bankers, professional men invariably left their measure with their tailors, and scorned what was familiarly termed "slop-made" clothing. But a demand arose for fine grades of ready-made clothing and the alert American manufacturer was ready to meet it. It was the old story of the relative cost of making one coat or of making 500. But there were men of peculiar shape who heretofore could be fitted only by the custom tailor. He was too tall, too fat. This difficulty was soon met and overcome, until today the ready-made dealer has for his customers that class of men who once scorned him.

And that explains why every sort and condition of man may be suited with Clothing here. The handsomest and nobbiest assortment of Winter styles that ever graced the counters, where for years has been done the best and biggest business of the city.

Each season we are extending our facilities, multiplying our varieties, manufacturing with increased advantages and bringing within your reach the choice and pick of all there is in reliable and fashionable male attire.

A long sight to see far ahead, a perfect organization to search the world over for the latest, and finest and a fat purse to secure generous discounts on great buying and quick paying have made everything possible. Thus do we present our colossal stock-a genuine cosmopolitan collection-for this public, gotten under those favoring conditions.

A corresponding evolution has come about in Boys' Clothing. The former domestic-made garments have been replaced by tailor-made. Picturesque, neat, tidy Clothes are the Boys' right now, and they are nothing if not stylish. All sorts of Suits are here that the youth, large or small, will look manliest in. Sure fit, sure comfort, sure worth.
